Jason Brown sentenced to 58 years for the murder of Southport Police Department's Lt. Aaron Allan

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. – Marion County Prosecutor Ryan Mears announced today that Jason Brown has been sentenced to 58 years with 55 years executed in the Department of Correction for the 2017 shooting death of Southport Police Department's Lt. Aaron Allan. In February, a Marion County Superior Court judge ordered the verdict one week after a six-day court trial.

"The sentence imposed today provides finality to the criminal matter and our thoughts remain with Stacy, the family, and the Southport Police Department during this difficult time. We will continue to honor the legacy and sacrifice of Lt. Aaron Allan," Prosecutor Mears said.
